Are You Ready?

An In-depth Guide to Citizen Preparedness

- Are You Ready? An In-depth Guide to Citizen Preparedness (IS-22) is FEMA's most comprehensive source on individual, family, and community preparedness. The guide provides the public with a step-by-step approach to disaster preparedness with the most current and up-to-date disaster preparedness information available.
- The Are You Ready? Program will prepare you to develop and maintain an Emergency Family Communication Plan and give you the knowledge on how to prepare an Emergency Disaster Supply Kit. You will also be exposed to different terminologies and signs involving manmade disasters and natural disaster; i.e., fire, floods and other weather-related events, hazmat incidents and terrorism. Other topics covered will be Emergency Public Shelters, Care of People with Special Needs, Animal Care During a Disaster and much more.

Members of the East Hanover Office of Emergency Management will facilitate you through the program guide book section by section as well as giving hands on training such as:

- Turning off you utilities
- Developing a Family Communication Plan
- Assist to develop a fire escape plan which can be later reviewed by visiting the East Hanover Fire Prevention Bureau;
- Provide information on how to prepare yourself and your loved ones for disasters
- Provide you with important contact information

Program will be held Wednesday September 14, 2011 from 6:30 pm to 10:00 pm at the East Hanover Fire Headquarters located at: 323 Ridgedale Ave, East Hanover, NJ Refreshments will be served.
