IDENTITY THEFT INFORMATION

If you have been the victim of a theft, which includes your personal information, you therefore may become the victim of identity theft.

- 1 Contact the fraud departments of any one of the three major credit bureaus to place a fraud alert on your credit file. The fraud alert requests creditors to contact you before opening any new accounts or making any changes to your existing accounts. As soon as the credit bureau confirms your fraud alert, the other two credit bureaus will be automatically notified to place fraud alerts, and all three credit reports will be sent to you free of charge.

EAST HANOVER POLICE DEPARTMENT IDENTITY THEFT FILE CONSENT DOCUMENT

By signing this document, I hereby provide the East Hanover Police Department permission to enter my personal data into the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI's) Identity Theft File. This information may include, but is not limited to, physical descriptors and identifying information including my name, date of birth, place of birth, Social Security Number, the type of identity theft, and a password provided by me for future identification verification purposes. I am also providing permission to enter my photograph into this file when that capability becomes available. PASSWORD: _____

I understand that this information is being submitted as part of a criminal investigation of a crime of which I was a victim and will be available to entities having access to the FBI's National Crime Information Center (NCIC) files for any authorized purpose. I am providing this data voluntarily as a means to document my claim of identity theft and to obtain a unique password to be used for future identity verification purposes.

I understand that the FBI intends to remove this information from the NCIC active file no later than five years from the date of entry. I also understand that I may at any time submit a written request to the entering agency to have this information removed from the active file at an earlier date. I further understand that information removed from the active file will not thereafter be accessible via NCIC terminals, but it will be retained by the FBI as a record of the NCIC entry until such time as its deletion may be authorized by the National Archives and Records Administration.

I understand that this is a legally binding document reflecting my intent to have personal data entered into the FBI's Identity Theft File. I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. (See Title 28, United States Code [U.S.C.], Section 1746.)

The Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C. § 552a) requires that local, state, or federal agencies inform individuals whose Social Security number is being requested whether such disclosure is mandatory or voluntary, the basis of authority for such solicitation, and the uses which will be made of it. Accordingly, disclosure of your Social Security number is voluntary; it is being requested pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 534 for the purposes described above. The Social Security number will be used as an identification tool; consequently, failure to provide the number may result in a reduced ability to make such identifications or provide future identity verifications.

2 Close the accounts that you know or believe have been tampered with or opened fraudulently. Use the ID Theft Affidavit when disputing new unauthorized accounts. Find that document online at:
<http://www.ftc.gov/bcp/online/pubs/credit/affidavit.pdf>

3 File a police report. Get a copy of the report to submit to your creditors and others that may require proof of the crime.

4 File your complaint with the Federal Trade Commission. The FTC maintains a database of identity theft cases used by law enforcement agencies for investigations. Filing a complaint also helps us learn more about identity theft and the problems victims are having so that we can better assist you.

Use the form online at this web address to file the complaint with the FTC:
